Dharavi youth who fought poverty now an Army officer

Mumbai: The industrious inhabitants of Dharavi-Sion Koliwada were a proud lot Saturday. A tenacious 26-year-old named Umesh Dillirao Keelu became the first youth from the precinct to be commissioned in Indian Army.

Nine members of his family, including his mother and married sister, attended Saturday's passing out parade at OTA (Officers Training Academy) in Chennai.

Years before wearing the olive uniform, Umesh fought hand-to-hand combat with poverty and misfortune. "My father, a painter, became paralysed in 2013 and died of heart attack a day before I had to report for Army training, in March 2023," Umesh said by phone from Chennai. "Today I completed my 11-month training and become a commissioned officer in the Army."

His sunburnt upbringing, in fact, fuelled his appetite for success. Right from his teens, the determined student self-funded his education, acquiring scholarships, working at a local cyber cafe. He received assistance from Tata Trusts, PF Davar Trust and Mahalaxmi Trust.

Umesh completed his BSc in IT and took a Masters degree in computer science. "I also worked at Tata Consultancy Services for three years followed by a stint at British Council on the weekends." What the youth modestly does not mention is that he shouldered the responsibility of his entire family and funded his father's treatment by this multitasking.

Early training in the NCC had set his sights on a career in the defence forces. His attraction was fuelled by the fact that the Army would afford him the opportunity to play sport and travel while ennobling him as he served the nation. "I managed to clear the SSB (Services Selection Board) exam after 13 attempts. I cannot reveal my posting, that is a confidential matter. Suffice to say that I am affiliated with the IT infantry unit," he said.

Umesh did not fail to mention the perilous circumstances that engulf Dharavi. He posted on X, "There is a high rate of unemployment. I hope my achievement will motivate other youngsters from the area to join the Army, which at present they know little about. Lots of people are facing financial crisis."

Umesh told TOI, "I want to say to other youth, if you are aiming for something in your life, and you are working hard, you will achieve your goal. Be prepared, move on, face all the problems, face the odds. Even if you fail your exams, keep practising. Talk to mentors, officers, that will really help you." TNN

PM Modi spends an action-packed day in Assam

Kangkan Kalita & Prabin Kalita | TNN

Guwahati: From enjoying the delightful sight of a one-horned rhino while riding on the safari elephant Pradyumna during his maiden visit to Kaziranga National Park to unveiling a 125-foot statue of legendary Ahom military commander Lachit Barphukan, PM Narendra Modi had an eventful day in Assam, where he dedicated and laid foundation stones of projects totalling Rs 17,606 crore for the state on Saturday. Named "The Statue of Valour," it is part of the Lachit Barphukan Maidam Development Project, which also includes a museum, a 500-seating capacity auditorium, and a hostel near the medieval-era commander's burial mound at Hollongapar in Jorhat district.

Addressing a rally, Modi said, "Veer Lachit Borphukan is the symbol of Assam's valour & determination," as he recalled celebrating his 400th birth anniversary with great pomp and honour in 2022 in New Delhi and bowed before the brave warrior.

"Vikas bhi aur virasat bhi — development as well as heritage — has been the mantra of our double-engine govt," he said.

Modi woos north Bengal with 3 Ts

PM Modi touched on the three Ts close to North Bengal's heart — tea, tourism and timber — while intertwining them with broader issues plaguing Bengal, including allegations of "corruption" and "misrule" by TMC, as he made another targeted appeal to women at his first election rally in Siliguri on Saturday, report Roshan Gupta & Dwaipayan Ghosh.

In his fourth speech in 8 days in the state, PM reiterated themes from his previous addresses, aiming to sustain BJP's momentum in North Bengal

In his fourth speech within nine days in the state, the PM reiterated themes from his previous addresses, aiming to sustain BJP's momentum in North Bengal, where it won seven of eight LS seats in 2019. Speaking on BJP's commitment to the region's progress, Modi outlined plans for enhancing business opportunities in tea, tourism, and timber sectors, alongside infrastructure development initiatives.

TMC, meanwhile, reminded the PM that "Manipur is just over 350km from Kaziranga". RS MP-elect Sagarika Ghose posted on X: "…In Manipur after 10 months of violence, almost 200 have died and there have been several incidents of army officers being abducted. Given how you criss-cross India, why did you not stop over in Manipur? Or is Manipur not on the map of "New India."

Cops arrest 3 in connection with shooting incident in Goa

Panaji/Ponda: Ponda police on Saturday arrested three persons in connection with the alleged shooting near Bethora junction on Friday. The shooting appeared to stem from the victim's friendship with the conspirator's wife, police said.

Sachin Kurtikar, 32, from Khandepar, Ponda, was riding to work when he was allegedly shot at by an unidentified person. Police said that the alleged shooting was a result of a tiff between Kurtikar and the main conspirator, Devadas Masurkar, 47, from Shantinagar. Police registered the case as an attempt to murder.

South Goa superintendent of police Sunita Sawant said Kurtikar was friendly with Masurkar's wife for the past seven years. She said that in the past, Kurtikar allegedly assaulted Masurkar at his house when questioned over his friendship with his wife.

She also said that Kurtikar, a truck driver, had threatened to run his truck over Masurkar and kill him. Sawant added that Masurkar, out of fear that Kurtikar would one day kill him, may have planned to kill Kurtikar.

Masurkar and two of his employees have been arrested, she said. The employees, brothers and Bihar natives, are Pravin Kumar, 22, and Prabhat Paswan 25.

The conspiracy to carry out the failed hit began in mid-December, Sawant said. Masurkar discussed the plan with the brothers, and they agreed to purchase an improvised firearm from Bihar. TNN
