Learned senior counsel appearing for the appellant submitted that the appellant has a right to file a Review

Petition against the judgment of this Court dated 02.05.2025 in the case of Kalyani Transco vs. Bhushan Power and Steel Ltd. & Ors. (Civil Appeal No.1808 of 2020) and the limitation period for filing a Review Petition has not yet expired; that steps are being taken to file a Review Petition; however, having regard to the directions issued by this court, the first respondent-ex- promoters are seeking an expeditious implementation of the directions issued by this Court; that any implementation of those directions, at this stage, would only jeopardise the consideration of the Review Petition to be filed by the appellant herein. In the circumstances, it was urged that a practical solution be reached pending consideration and disposal of the Review Petition by this court.

7. We have heard learned counsel for the respondents.

8. Without expressing any opinion on the merits of the matter, at this juncture we find that the interest of justice would be served and in order to avoid future legal complications in the matter, an order of status quo of the proceedings pending before the National Company Law Tribunal is issued by this Court.

9. Hence, we issue an order of status quo regarding the proceeding before the National Company Law Tribunal. This order would operate pending disposal of the Review Petition(s) to be filed and considered by this Court.

10. We clarify that this order in this appeal has been made by way of an interim arrangement pending consideration and disposal of the Review Petition(s) to be filed by the appellant herein before this Court.

11. We also record the submission of the learned senior counsel for the appellant Mr. Neeraj Kishan Kaul that the Review Petition(s) would be filed before this Court prior to the expiry of the limitation period and in accordance with law.

This appeal is disposed of in the aforesaid terms.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
