Governor inaugurates Stubi, wellness centre on Jayendra Saraswathi 89th Jayanthi fete

Chennai, Sept 21: A function was organized to commemorate the 89th Jayanthi Celebrations of His Holiness Pujyasri Jayendra Saraswathi Swamigal with the benign blessings of Pujyashri Sankara Vijayendra Saraswati Swami at Sri Chandrasekharendra Saraswathi Viswa Mahavidyalaya.

Governor R.N. Ravi unveiled the renovated Stubi established to commemorate the Golden Jubilee of His Holiness Pujyasri Jayendra Saraswathi Swamigal ascending to Peetam. He declared open Champakaaranyam

- Sri Jayendra Saraswathi park with Champaka trees. The Governor of Tamil Nadu visited "Saswathaiswaryam" inside the University where palm leaf manuscripts are protected and preserved digitally with modern technology.

Later, in a formal ceremony held at the University's International Library Hall, the Vice-Chancellor Dr. S.V. Raghavan in his address welcomed the Governor of Tamil Nadu and all the special invitees, faculty members, staff and students who attended the function." Pujyashri Sankara Vijayendra Saraswathi Swamigal - the patron of SCSVMV gave his blessings for the occasion and explained the sanctity of Kanchipuram and its contribution in preserving and promoting Vedas, Shastras and various art forms from time immemorial.

Governor also inaugurated Sri Jayendra Saraswathi Wellness Centre with state-of-the-art facilities and delivered a special address. In his address, The Governor appreciated three decades of service of Sri Chandrasekharendra Saraswathi Viswa Mahavidyalaya in empowering the students with traditional knowledge integrated with technology and highlighted the great role SCSVMV can play in nation's development. He had a lively interactive session with the students of the University. The special guests who attended the event included Mr. N Ravi, Director, Kasturi & Sons Ltd., The Hindu Group, Sangeetha Kalanidhi Neyveli Santhanagopalan, Jaisankar, former Vice Chancellor of the University among others. More than one hundred employees and more than three hundred students participated in this event.

Young leaders set to influence global climate agenda at COP-28

Chennai, Sept 21: 'Youth has a crucial role in climate action and we need to engage them from an early age' Shri Amit Raj, Director of Climate Change and International Cooperation, Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change, was speaking at Local Conference of Youth (LCOY) India 2023 organised UNICEF India, YuWaah, Kerala Institute of Local Administration (KILA), Purpose, Bring Back Green (BBG) Foundation and Indian Youth for Climate Network (IYCN) joined hands for climate and youth empowerment.

K L Rao, Chief, UNICEF

Office for Kerala and Tamil Nadu, underscored the urgency of addressing climate change impacts and protecting children and youth, emphasizing their role in leading shock-responsive social protection measures during the event.

LCOY India 2023, a crucial prelude to UNFCCC COY, brought together

125 passionate young delegates from 21 states and UTs, representing diverse backgrounds and experiences, to collaborate and formulate a national youth statement for integration into the Global Youth Statement at COY. The profiles of the delegates were diverse.

Nidhinkrishna K R, Youth Delegate and

State Project Coordinator of Panchayat Climate Parliament said "Climate change presents both threats and opportunities for a better world which calls to foster grassroots youth engagement and discussion on climate issues with the support of state government and local governance."

During the September 15th-17th event, discussions revolved around key COP28 themes including action for climate empowerment, climate finance, and energy transitions, among others, resulting in a thematic output statement poised to shape the National Youth Statement.

Kognoz unveils Konverz.ai, unified talent efficient model

Chennai, Sept 21: Kognoz, India's leading technology-driven people consulting company, elevates talent acquisition by announcing the launch of Konverz.ai, a groundbreaking AI-driven hiring solution that is set to redefine the talent acquisition landscape. This revolutionary product marks a paradigm shift in the hiring process by enabling organizations to conduct interviews without human intervention, harnessing advanced AI technology to assess personality traits, cognitive abilities, motivations, and emotions of interviewees, all benchmarked against industry standards.

Commenting on the launch, Lokesh Nigam, Co-founder & Director, Kognoz, said, "The launch of Konverz.ai marks a significant milestone in the world of talent acquisition. By combining the power of AI with behavioural science, we are addressing long-standing challenges in the hiring process. Several challenges prompted the launch of Konverz.ai, including high costs per hire, excessive attrition rates, extended time to productivity, skills mismatch, evolving job roles, prolonged recruitment processes, and limited assessment solutions. I firmly believe that our product Konverz.ai will be a game changer in the industry and will successfully elevate the overall hiring experience".

The talent acquisition landscape faces multiple challenges from shrinking talent pools, heightened competition, skill mismatches due to evolving roles, and lengthy recruitment processes. Hence, Konverz.ai's launch addresses these challenges with AI-driven solutions, streamlining talent acquisition and empowering informed decisions in a rapidly evolving industry.

This innovative approach eliminates the limitations of traditional hiring methods, addressing several constraints faced by the industry.

Multi-city beach cleanup drive by ICG, Ecolastic

Chennai, Sept 21: Indian Coast Guard (ICG)and Ecolastic Products Pvt. Ltd., a Hyderabad-based Bioplastics manufacturing brand have joined hands to announce the launch of the Beach Clean-up Drive on September 16, 2023 that will be executed in 3 cities simultaneously: Chennai, Kakinada and Vizag. This initiative is a testament to Ecolastic Commitment to protecting our natural environment and fostering community engagement on our shores.

The Beach Clean-up Drive aims to address the critical issue of marine pollution with single-use plastic and its adverse effects on our coastal ecosystems. As environmental stewards, Ecolastic recognize the urgent need to create awareness, take action and mitigate the impact of single-use plastic waste and other pollutants on our beautiful beaches.

Jithendra Nimmagadda, Director & CEO, Ecolastic Products, said, "By picking up plastic trash in our 100% compostable garbage bags, we're not just cleaning the beaches, but are trying to spread the message that there are eco-friendly alternatives to single-use plastic products such as garbage bags."
