Core promises kept, BJP eyes devpt plank

Rajnath-Led Panel Meets To Chart Poll Road Map

Akhilesh Singh

New Delhi: Defence minister Rajnath Singh on Thursday chaired the second meeting of BJP's 27-member manifesto drafting committee even as PM Narendra Modi and other senior leaders are likely to release the poll manifesto for the 2024 Lok Sabha elections titled "Sankalp Patra" next week laying focus on the "Developed India" plank with emphasis on empowerment of women, farmers, youth and poor.

"Today the second meeting of the election manifesto committee was held at the central office of BJP. In this meeting, various topics and suggestions were discussed with a view to fulfilling the resolve of building a developed India under the leadership of PM Narendra Modi," Singh, who is the chairperson of the party's manifesto drafting panel, posted on X.

Convener of the panel and finance minister Nirmala Sitharaman and her ministerial colleagues, Arjun Munda, Bhupendra Yadav, Ashwini Vaishnaw, Arjun Ram Meghwal, Kiren Rijiju along with senior party leaders Ravi Shankar Prasad, Vinod Tawde, Radha Mohan Agarwal and Manjinder Singh Sirsa attended the meeting. Gujarat CM Bhupendra Patel and UP deputy CM Keshav Prasad Maurya were also in attendance.

In line with the PM's assertion that his first two tenures were utilised to lay the foundation for a developed India and make it the third largest economy in the world, and the next tenure will be focused at attaining it, sources said the party is likely to shed light in its election manifesto on the roadmap about its "Viksit Bharat" pledge by 2047 when the country will be celebrating 100 years of its independence.

The party has coined an acronym — 'GYAN' Garib (poor), Yuva (youth), Annadata (farmers) and Naari (women) — on whose welfare and empowerment it is likely to form a detailed plan of action.

After decades, the party will be releasing its poll manifesto at a time when its core poll pledges like Ram Temple construction, nullification of Article 370, implementation of CAA and UCC have been fulfilled. However, sources said the above promises could be incorporated in a chapter "Jo Kahaso Kiya" (we delivered what promised), the latest slogan of the party highlighting Modi's guarantee of delivering what he had assured.

Court restores SC status of BJP leader Navneet Kaur

AmitAnand.Choudhary

New Delhi: In a relief to BJP leader and MP from Amravati reserved constituency Navneet Kaur Ravi Rana just ahead of general elections, Supreme Court on Thursday quashed Bombay high court order by which her Scheduled Caste certificate of 'Mochi' was cancelled. A bench of Justices JK Maheshwari and Sanjay Karol held that 2017 order of District Caste Scrutiny Committee which validated Kaur's caste claim as 'Mochi' was right and the HC inadvertently undertook an erroneous exercise of appreciating evidence and swayed itself into a roving inquiry which was not expected as per settled legal position.

"When the scrutiny committee which is principally tasked with the fact finding exercise for validation of caste claim, had applied its mind and reached a conclusion, then in such a situation, whether a roving enquiry by HC was required? It is well settled that high courts as well as Supreme Court should refrain themselves from deeper probe into factual issues like an appellate body unless the inferences made by the concerned authority suffers from perversity on the face of it or are impermissible in the eyes of law. In the instant case, the order passed by the committee reflects due appreciation of evidence and application of mind and in absence of any allegation of bias/malice or lack of jurisdiction, disturbing the findings of the committee cannot be sustained," the bench said.

Kaur was elected from reserved seat on the basis of the certificate which attested to her being a 'Mochi' which is Scheduled Caste in the state making her eligible to contest from a reserved seat. The court had in 2021 stayed the HC order, paving the way for her to continue to represent the constituency in Parliament.

Modi vows jail for Sandeshkhali culprits, accuses TMC of graft

Rohit Khanna & Pinak Priya Bhattacharya | TNN

Kolkata/Cooch Behar: PM Narendra Modi assured Thursday that the "culprits of Sandeshkhali will spend their entire lives in jail", while accusing Trinamool govt in Bengal of failing Sandeshkhali's women, who accused local TMC leaders of sexual harassment.

During a Lok Sabha campaign rally in Cooch Behar, Modi also accused Trinamool govt of corruption and obstructing the implementation of development schemes initiated by the Centre. He alleged that BJP's political rivals were spreading misinformation about Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA), while reassuring the audience that those who have faith in "Ma Bharati" would receive citizenship. "This is Modi ki guarantee," the PM said.

Modi highlighted both corruption and Sandeshkhali to show how Trinamool was actively working against the people of Bengal. "The country has seen how the entire state machinery was used to protect the tormentors of Sandeshkhali. We have vowed to punish them," he said. "Trinamool is also trying to save those involved in the ration and teacher recruitment scams. They are trying to save those who duped members of Modi's family. That was your money and no one can loot that. They are trying to stop the investigations. I say 'remove corruption'. They say 'protect the corrupt'. But their threats will not work with Modi. You will see more stringent investigations in the next five years," he promised. Modi asserted that 140 crore Indians are "my family".

The development that India had seen over the past 10 years was "just the trailer", he said, promising that 3 crore women from Bengal would become "Lakshmi Didis" in BJP govt's next term. "We freed Jammu and Kashmir from Article 370. We brought Women's Reservation Bill. Ram Mandir was built in Ayodhya after 500 years," the PM said, giving examples of how Modi's guarantee worked. "If the intent is right, the result is also right," he asserted, giving examples of schemes to provide houses, toilets, piped water, and cooking gas. Commenting against the backdrop of a campaign by opposition parties, including TMC, which has claimed that applying for CAA would turn legal citizens into foreigners, Modi said: "They (INDIA bloc) never cared for marginalised communities. Trinamool, Left, and Congress never cared for Rajbanshi, Namasudra, and Matua communities."

Cong, RJD joined hands in attempt to fight me: PM

Patna: PM Modi called out Congress and RJD on Thursday for "coming together in the name of fighting Modi", conveniently forgetting that their leadership would, not long ago, "demand jail terms for each other in corruption cases", reports Abhay Singh.

"Congress and RJD gave our country such a bad name—Congress with its failure to curb terrorist activity and RJD with its mishandling of the Maoist problem," Modi said during a campaign rally in Jamui, 165km from Patna.

"The world used to think we are a weak and poor nation. Terrorists from small countries that are now struggling to maintain their supplies of wheat used to strike at will. Successive Congress govts did little except seek intervention by other nations."

Modi's 30-minute speech also contained references to the "development successes" of three NDA govts in Bihar led by CM Nitish Kumar from November 2005 to June 2013, July 2017 to August 2022, and January this year till now.

Officials: Grocery items among big pre-poll seizures this time

Venkatesh Kumar, additional chief election officer, Karnataka, told TOI seizures show alongside the new freebies the old faithfuls are also being handed out — cookers, mixers, saris, churidars, dupattas and trousers.

Bidar, Shivamogga, Chikkamagaluru, and Kalaburagi districts top this inglorious list. Police haul of freebies in Shivamogga included grocery hampers of rice and ragi bags, salt and oil packets.

Per Venkatesh, "Groceries are big among the seizures this time. Groceries are packed in boxes and kept for distribution across various godowns." Obviously, there are no bills attached. Even Bengaluru district has seen a spike in the use of groceries as voter inducements. Data accessed by TOI show Shivamogga's freebies include tomato sauce, Google TV boxes, tea bags, and scented tobacco. "We are uncertain if this is going to be used to induce voters or party workers, but hoarding such huge quantities without proper bills is an offence," Venkatesh told TOI.

A huge consignment of pan masala packets weighing 4,000kg and worth Rs 10 lakh was seized in Bidar district. A senior election officer from Bidar said using pan masala as a freebie is unusual. The usual 'gift' is clothing. Chikkballapura police officials have seized 96 expensive watches costing Rs 24 lakh. "These watches are expensive and not easily available in the city...the cache is linked to an Andhra-based party," said a police official.

On March 22, police seized 203kg of sandalwood worth Rs 30 lakh in the Bellary constituency. An FIR has been filed. Of the 11 accused, four have been arrested.

Irani: Rahul ashamed of IUML support, so no Cong flag at rally

Wayanad: Union minister Smriti Irani on Thursday lashed out at Congress MP Rahul Gandhi by accusing him of being "ashamed" of party ally IUML as its flag was not shown during his road show in this hill district.

Irani, who was campaigning for BJP in the hill constituency where Gandhi is seeking a re-election, said if he was ashamed of the Indian Union Muslim League (IUML), he should reject their support.

The Union minister for women and child development, who had defeated Gandhi in Amethi in the 2019 general elections, also accused Gandhi of being silent with regard to the alleged misgovernance by the Left front in Kerala. "Scams in

Congress so scared of BJP that it's hiding its own flag, says CPM's Vijayan

Attacking Congress for not displaying its party flag during Rahul Gandhi's roadshow in Wayanad on Wednesday, Kerala CM Pinarayi Vijayan said on Thursday that the party is "so afraid of BJP that it hides its own flag". "The most important thing we could notice was that the flag of their own party was not seen anywhere in the rally. There is a doubt as to why Congress is becoming a party which is not hesitant to hide even its own flag," he said at a press conference here, asking why the Congress flag has become 'untouchable' to its leaders. "Congress forgot even the brave patriots who suffered torture by British police while trying to uphold that flag," he said. TNN

Gaurav Vallabh quits 'directionless' Cong to join BJP

Manash.Gohain@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: Gaurav Vallabh, for long the face of Congress's aggression on prime time television, joined BJP on Thursday in protest against the opposition party's attacks on wealth creators and boycott of the consecration ceremony of Ram Mandir as well as attacks by INDIA bloc parties on Sanatan Dharma.

"I am not able to feel comfortable with the directionless way in which Congress is moving forward today. I can neither raise anti-Sanatan slogans nor abuse wealth creators of the country in the morning and evening. That is why I am resigning from all posts and primary membership of Congress party," Vallabh posted on X in what marked the first public attack on Rahul Gandhi's targeting of "Ambanis and Adanis". Calling Congress's "anti-corporate" narrative dangerous for the nation, the economics professor said he felt stifled by the party's economic policies.

"Hundreds of unicorns are generating wealth for the country. They are generating for themselves as well but ultimately that wealth belongs to the nation. Are they sinning? Are they sinners? They are creating wealth with their capital and hard work. I cannot abuse wealth creators," he said. "The party is moving forward in the wrong direction," he said.

Out of jail, AAP's Sanjay Singh likely to assume larger role in campaign

Atul.Mathur@timesgroup.com

New Delhi: Senior Aam Aadmi Party leader and Rajya Sabha member Sanjay Singh, who came out of jail on Wednesday after getting bail from Supreme Court, may assume a larger role in the poll campaign of the party for the upcoming Lok Sabha polls.

An "excellent" orator and a "crowd-puller", Singh is likely to be the main campaigner and speaker, along with Punjab CM Bhagwant Mann, in absence of party supremo Arvind Kejriwal, who is currently in Tihar Jail in an alleged money laundering case, sources in AAP said.

"With his fiery speech at the party headquarters within hours of his release from jail, Sanjay Singh showed what he is capable of. He knows the art of galvanising the party workers. His oratory skills are as good as some of the top political leaders our country has produced," said an AAP functionary.

"He will be the obvious choice for us to lead the campaign," the functionary added. Singh's release has come at a time when the beleaguered AAP is in the middle of its worst-ever crisis, triggered by the arrest of party's national convener and Delhi CM Arvind Kejriwal just ahead of Lok Sabha elections. It is likely to give AAP a much-desired boost just before the polls and rejuvenate the party cadre.

A part of opposition's INDIA bloc alliance, Aam Aadmi Party is contesting a total of 22 Lok Sabha seats spread across five states, including 13 in Punjab where it is going all alone. It has managed a seat-sharing arrangement with Congress in Delhi, Gujarat, Haryana and Assam, contesting four, two, one and two seats, respectively. While Mann is likely to lead the campaign in Punjab, sources said

Singh would be at the forefront in Delhi. Their itinerary for their travel to all states will be drawn in due course of time, the functionary said.

Talking to reporters, Singh said he would discharge whatever duty would be assigned to him in the Lok Sabha polls. "The party will prepare the future strategy. I am a party worker and follow the party's directions," the AAP leader added.

Sources said Singh held a long meeting with senior party functionaries on Thursday afternoon after his morning visit to Rajghat and to the residences of Kejriwal and former health minister Satendar Jain. The party functionaries deliberated upon the focus of the campaign and slogans that might be used to impress upon the voters. Singh is also likely to be involved in designing a joint campaign with Congress, which is contesting three seats in Delhi, sources said.

Delhi BJP president Virendra Sachdeva, however, said Sanjay Singh was released on bail but behaving as if he had been discharged of the charges of liquor "scam".

WB questions motives of PILs on Sandeshkhali

The court directed advocate general Kishore Datta to submit all 43 FIRs and chargesheets related to Shahjahan and his aides filed until Jan 5, the day ED officials came under attack while trying to conduct a search at Sheikh Shahjahan's home in Sandeshkhali.

Datta also raised concerns about the influx of PILs, questioning their motives and labelling them as "political interest litigations" or "personal interest litigations". He urged HC to examine the timing and nature of these PILs, emphasising that they often emerged immediately after unfortunate events and vanished once the issue lost prominence.

Highlighting Sandeshkhali's historical significance, particularly its role in the Tebhaga movement before Independence, Datta questioned the silence of its residents in lodging torture complaints before Jan 5.
