It would be perverse to doubt legislative intention behind scheme'

The electoral bond scheme came into effect due to provisions of Finance Act, 2017, he mentioned, adding "it would be perverse to doubt the legislative intention behind this scheme... If we enforce this judgment retrospectively, releasing all sensitive information, it will shatter the reputation the nation enjoys in international arena. I, request your goodness to withhold enforcement of SC judgment in electoral bonds case by seeking a presidential reference. Till reference is heard & answered, SC shall not give effect to its verdict of March 11, 2024." TNN

SC to Centre: Give Kerala a bailout

AmitAnand.Choudhary

New Delhi: As Kerala govt is facing extreme fiscal problems due to the Centre's decision to put a cap on its borrowing capacity, the Supreme Court on Tuesday asked the Union govt to consider a bailout package as a one-time measure with a condition that the amount given could be adjusted in the first quarter of next financial year.

A bench of Justices Surya Kant and K V Viswanathan asked the Centre to consider a bailout package as a one-time measure with a condition that the amount given could be adjusted in the first quarter of next financial year.

GOVT EXPRESSES RESERVATIONS
The Centre and Kerala are at loggerheads with the state approaching SC contending that the Centre's decision was against fiscal federalism. Kerala govt in its suit referred to Centre's letters dated March 27, 2023, and Aug 11, 2023, through the finance ministry (public finance-state division), department of expenditure, and amendments made to Sec 4 of Fiscal Responsibility & Budget Management Act, 2003. "The plaintiff state submits the said amount of Rs 26,226 crore is immediately and urgently required in order for plaintiff state to avert the grave financial crisis that has been caused by the impugned orders," the suit said.

However, additional solicitor general N Venkataraman expressed the Centre's reservation in extending special treatment to Kerala saying that the Centre had rejected similar pleas of bail-out packages made by other states. He said that govt was "literally handicapped" and it could not discriminate among states.

The court asked govt to explore all possibilities and brief the court on Wednesday. It was hearing a petition filed by the state against the Centre's decision to impose limits on the state's borrowing capacity. The court had earlier asked both govt to sit together and sort out the issue through dialogue.

Opposing Kerala govt, attorney general R Venkataramani earlier told SC that public finance management is a national issue and uncontrolled borrowing by states would affect credit rating of the country.
