Centre releases Rs 6,418 cr to state as advance installment of tax share

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAI, OCTOBER 3

THE CENTRAL government has released a tax devolution to state governments as an advance installment, out of which Maharashtra has received Rs 6,418 crore.

This transfer is in addition to the regular monthly devolution scheduled for October 10. Expressing gratitude for this decision, Deputy Chief Minister Ajit Pawar, who holds the finance portfolio, extended heartfelt thanks to Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Union Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman.

the state to ramp up capital expenditure as well as provide adequate funding for our welfare and development schemes, this amount will undoubtedly prove beneficial for Maharashtra," Ajit Pawar said.

Earlier, the chief minister and the deputy chief minister had met the Finance Commission requesting for enhanced share for the state in tax devolution.

At a meeting with the 16th Finance Commission, Maharashtra urged the Centre to increase its share in the divisible tax pool.

The funds received by Maharashtra are used for capital spending and to finance its development and welfare schemes.

GADCHIROLI

2019 attack on security personnel: Court frames charges against four

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAI, OCTOBER 3

A SPECIAL court on Friday framed charges against four accused in the 2019 Gadchiroli security personnel attack case. Previously, the court had framed charges against four others; one accused Nirmala Uppuganti alias Nirmala Akka passed away in 2022.

Nine persons were booked in 2019 for their alleged involvement in a blast in Gadchiroli on May 1, 2019, which killed 16, including 15 personnel of the Quick Response Team and a civilian. The accused were booked on charges including murder, criminal conspiracy and relevant sections of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act and the Maharashtra Control of Organised Crime Act.

On Friday, special judge C S Baviskar framed charges against Sathyanarayana Rani, Parasram Maniram Tulavi,

The NIA claimed the conspiracy for the attack was planned a year in advance as 'revenge' for the killing of 40 Naxals in 2018

Somsay Dalasay Madavi and Kisan Sitaram Hidami. Earlier, charges were framed against Dilip Hidami, Sukharu Gota, Kailash Ramchandani and Dinkar Gota.

Other than Sathyanarayana, who was granted bail by the Bombay High Court, all are in custody. In its chargesheet filed in December 2019, the NIA had claimed the conspiracy for the attack was planned a year in advance as a 'revenge' for the killing of 40 Naxals in 2018.

The NIA claimed a meeting was held in Aarewada jungle area in Gadchiroli district.

17TH STATE TO HAVE E-BOND

Maharashtra launches e-bonds to digitise export-import transactions

VALLABH OZARKAR MUMBAI, OCTOBER 3

IN A step towards modernising high-value import and export transactions in the state, the Maharashtra government has launched an electronic bond system, or 'e-bond', to replace paper-based bonds. The move is part of the state government's efforts to streamline trade processes and improve ease-of-doing-business.

E-bond system will simplify transactions and set benchmark for other states - CHANDRASHEKHAR BAWANKULE REVENUE MINISTER

Maharashtra has become the 17th state to launch the 'e-bond' system, replacing traditional paper bonds for import-export transactions.

The e-bond system, introduced by Revenue Minister Chandrashekar Bawankule, allows importers and exporters to complete transactions digitally across all Customs offices in the state. The initiative aligns with the central government's push for digital governance.

Bawankule said the state handles 3,000 to 4,000 bonds monthly, totalling over 50,000 annually. "The e-bond system will simplify these transactions and set a benchmark for other states," he added.

The system was unveiled at the Mantralaya in Mumbai, with officials including Minister of State for Finance Ashish Jaiswal, Revenue Department Additional Chief Secretary Vikas Kharge, Nhava Sheva Port Commissioner Vijay Rishi and Inspector General of Registration and Stamps Ravindra Binwade in attendance.

The e-bond system eliminates the cumbersome paper-based stamp bonds, streamlining processes and fostering transparency in high-value transactions.

Bawankule emphasised the national significance of this reform, stating, "Maharashtra handles approximately 3,000 to 4,000 bonds monthly for import-export activities, totalling over 50,000 annually. The e-bond system will usher in a digital revolution, simplifying these transactions and setting a benchmark for other states." He added, "This is not just a state-level reform but a step towards strengthening India's economic framework, making it more competitive on the global stage."

Ex-CFO booked for Rs 1.18 cr embezzlement

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAI, OCTOBER 3

THE MUMBAI police have booked the former Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of Marcellus Investment Managers for allegedly embezzling Rs 1.18 crore.

The accused, Pankaj Gupta, 41, was the CFO of the firm based in the Maharashtra Industrial Development Corporation (MIDC) area, which has nearly 100 employees. He allegedly used the firm's money for personal purposes between December 2024 and July 2025, according to a police officer.

The MIDC police conducted an inquiry and registered a case against Gupta on September 25, based on a complaint by the firm's legal advisor in Andheri (East).

During the preliminary inquiry, it was learnt that he had lost money in the share market, said a police officer.

According to the police, the company had given Gupta a credit card from a private bank. He also had access to the current bank account of the firm to use the money for the company expenses. But employees of the account department found some objectionable payments made by him between December 2024 and July 2025.

When confronted by the employees in July, Gupta gave them vague answers, prompting them to inform the company's director about the malpractices, said a police officer.

The case was registered against him under Sections 316 (4) for criminal breach of trust and 318 (4) for cheating of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS).

The notice was given to him, and legal action will be taken soon, said Senior Inspector Ravindra Wani, MIDC police station.

Uddhav stepping up attack on BJP to help his party gain traction: Bawankule

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE MUMBAI, OCTOBER 3

SHARPLY ATTACKING Shiv Sena (UBT) chief Uddhav Thackeray over his Dusshera speech, Revenue Minister Chandrashekar Bawankule said the former chief minister was facing intense pressure following his party's electoral defeat which caused him to give such "distasteful" speeches.

He added that Thackeray's remarks reflected his frustration as public perception of his credibility had waned, prompting him to resort to "venomous" rhetoric on Thursday. "Thackeray appears convinced that his political relevance hinges on criticising the BJP. He lacks the capacity to secure 51 per cent vote share like the Mahayuti, which is why he has intensified his attacks on the BJP, targeting the party to regain traction," Bawankule said, adding that the party, however, remains focused on leading Maharashtra towards progress, undeterred by Thackeray's verbal assaults.

During the annual Dusshera rally held in Shivaji Park on Thursday, Uddhav Thackeray had targeted the BJP government and its leaders at the Centre and in Maharashtra, accusing it of corruption, oppor-tonism, and undermining the interest of the state and Mumbai.

Promising to bring a white paper exposing alleged corruption in the Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC), he warned that if the BJP managed to win the civic body polls, it would "surrender the city to Adani."

Underlining the Shiv Sena's commitment to protecting Mumbai's identity, Thackeray, in his speech, targeted Prime Minister Narendra Modi, RSS chief Mohan Bhagwat, and others, while likening the BJP to an "amoeba" that "expands everywhere but remains single-celled - leaving no room for others."

He accused the party of claiming the credit for projects initiated by the Sena (UBT) during the tenure of the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA), including the BDD chawl redevelopment and Mumbai's nightlife reforms.

Urging Marathis to show the BJP "its place" in the coming polls, the Sena (UBT) chief reiterated that his party was united with the Maharashtra Navnirman Sena (MNS) led by his cousin Raj Thackeray, and they had embraced each other to stay together.

He exuded confidence that people would teach the BJP a lesson in the local body elections soon.
