UNSC flays attacks on peacekeepers in Lebanon

The UN Security Council issued a press statement on Wednesday condemning the recent attacks against peacekeepers in Lebanon.

Against the backdrop of ongoing hostilities along the Blue Line, the members of the Security Council condemned the several incidents that impacted the United Nations Interim Force in Lebanon (UNIFIL) positions and injured UNIFIL peacekeepers in the past weeks, including the ones on Oct. 29, Nov. 7 and Nov. 8, the statement said.

The council members urged all parties to take all measures to respect the safety and security of UNIFIL personnel and premises, and recalled that peacekeepers must never be the target of an attack.

In the statement, they reiterated their full support to UNIFIL, underscoring its role in supporting regional stability and expressed deep appreciation to its troop-contributing countries.

The council members voiced deep concern for civilian casualties and sufferings, the destruction of civilian infrastructure, the damage to cultural heritage sites in Lebanon and endangerment of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) world heritage sites in Baalbeck and Tyre, and the rising number of internally displaced people.

They called on all parties to abide by international humanitarian law and fully implement Security Council resolution 1701 (2006), the statement said.

Israel keen on quick ceasefire with Lebanon: Officials

Israeli Minister of Strategic Affairs Ron Dermer informed President-elect Donald Trump during his visit to Washington that Israel intends to accelerate the achievement of a ceasefire deal in Lebanon, the Washington Post reported, citing current and former Israeli officials.

During his visit to the US on Sunday, Dermer reportedly stopped at Trump's residence in Mar-a-Lago, after which he proceeded to the White House and briefed officials from the administration of outgoing US President Joe Biden on the progress of negotiations regarding Lebanon. "There is an understanding that Israel would gift something to Trump? that in January there will be an understanding about Lebanon," one of the Israeli officials told the newspaper.

At Trump's residence, the parties discussed Israel's proposal for a ceasefire in Lebanon with Western and Russian mediation, in an effort to give the president-elect an early foreign policy victory.

An Israeli military official also revealed that plans are being developed to intensify ground operations in Lebanon if negotiations fail. Meanwhile, the Israel Defense Forces reaffirmed the day before its intention to achieve its objectives in the ceasefire negotiations and Trump's victory in the US presidential election.

Since October 1, Israel has been conducting a ground operation against Hezbollah forces in southern Lebanon. Despite losses, the Lebanese movement has been fighting Israeli troops on the ground and launching rockets across the border. Israel says its main objective is to create conditions for the return of 60,000 residents who have fled shelling in the north.
