Rs 600-cr stake: TMC war prompts leader to seek account freeze

Sweetie Kumari & Damini Nath
Kolkata, New Delhi, June 18

Aroop Biswas is no longer the treasurer, says Trinamool

WITH TRINAMOOL Congress (TMC) leader Aroop Biswas asking a private bank to freeze the party's accounts amid a "serious dispute" going on within the organisation, the party on Thursday claimed he had been removed as its treasurer on June 5. The party's latest disclosures to the Election Commission (EC) show it had over Rs 676.11 crore in cash, bank balance, and cheques-in-hand.

permitted any debit transactions or changes in operational mandates in respect of the following account maintained with your branch until the dispute is duly resolved or appropriate directions are issued by the competent authority," he wrote.

A former state sports minister, Biswas is under the scanner for his alleged role in the fiasco at Kolkata's Salt Lake Stadium last December during Argentine footballer Lionel Messi's visit. The Bidhannagar Police have registered an FIR against him and others in connection with the incident.

In a video statement on Thursday, TMC leader Kunal Ghosh said, "To clear the confusion being spread across certain media outlets, we would like to state clearly that Biswas was the treasurer and was replaced with Subhasis Chakraborty on June 5."

TMC's assets

While the TMC's current finances are not known, its latest annual audited accounts report to the Election Commission (EC) for the 2024-2025 financial year shows the party had a closing balance of Rs 676.11 crore as of March 31, 2025.

The party also declared fixed assets worth Rs 7.15 crore, including buildings worth Rs 3.37 crore and vehicles worth Rs 2.29 crore. The other assets include computers, cameras, mobile phones, sound systems, furniture, coffee machines, and air purifiers.

The report, which was submitted in October 2025, shows that the TMC had a total income of Rs 219.35 crore that year, of which Rs 184.08 crore came in the form of donations. The party spent Rs 137.58 crore on election expenditure in 2024-2025, the period in which the Lok Sabha elections were held.

The TMC would have received donations and incurred significant expenditures since then, given that the West Bengal Assembly elections were held earlier this year. The party's disclosures for 2025-2026 are not yet available with the EC.

The TMC was the second-highest recipient of electoral bonds from April 2019 till January 2024, with a total of Rs.1,609 crore, as per data released by the EC in March 2024. While the rebel MPs have written to Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla expressing their decision to support the NDA government, they have yet to stake claim to the control of the party name and symbol. About the registered name and election symbol, the group can move the EC under the Election Symbols (Reservation & Allotment) Order, 1968. But, precedent and former EC officials say, a civil suit will be necessary to enable control of party finances. Till then, the persons authorised to operate the party accounts can continue to do so.

A former EC official said there was nothing in the election law about the party's assets, apart from its symbol, adding that Supreme Court judgments in the past had made it clear that the parties need to move civil courts, not the EC, for control of assets. "The process can take years as the EC's decision on the symbol dispute can be challenged in the Supreme Court," the former official said.

EBOLA SCARE IN KERALA

52-yr-old woman who travelled from South Sudan hospitalised with symptoms

India has not reported any confirmed Ebola case since the virus outbreak in parts of Africa

Shaju Philip
Thiruvananthapuram, June 18

A 52-year-old woman from Kerala, who recently travelled from South Sudan, has been admitted to the Medical College Hospital in Kottayam with suspected symptoms of Ebola. Officials at the medical college said the patient displayed symptoms of Ebola and had a travel history that included Sudan. "Samples have been collected and dispatched for laboratory investigation. We are awaiting the test reports for final confirmation," an official said.

The woman, who was first treated at a private hospital in Kottayam district's Pala, was moved to the government medical college on Wednesday night. She had developed a fever, headache, muscle pain and a sore throat.

Health Minister K Muralidharan said the woman had travelled alone from Sudan to India via Uganda. Her family is in Pala in Kottayam district. "We have made all arrangements to meet any eventuality. However, there is no ground for panic at this stage. The woman has been admitted to an isolation room in the medical college," he said.

India has so far not reported any confirmed cases of Ebola. Last month, Union Minister of Health and Family Welfare Jagat Prakash Nadda reviewed preparedness and surveillance measures for Ebola disease in view of the recent outbreak in some parts of Africa.

At the outset, the Union Health Minister said, "India has not reported any case of Bundibugyo Ebola disease to date." However, following the declaration of Ebola as a Public Health Emergency of International Concern (PHEIC) by the World Health Organisation (WHO) and Public Health Emergency of Continental Security (PHECS) by the Africa CDC, the Government of India is closely monitoring the Ebola situation in Africa and has proactively intensified surveillance and preparedness measures across the country as an abundant precaution to safeguard public health, authorities have said.

Subsequently, the Health Ministry has issued a special health alert across the country in response to the Ebola situation in the African nations of the Democratic Republic of Congo, Uganda, and South Sudan. Travellers arriving from these countries were advised to strictly follow the prescribed health and safety guidelines.

Cong allies cross-vote, cost it RS seat in Jharkhand

Manoj CG & Shubham Tigga
New Delhi, Ranchi, June 18

NDA-backed nominee Parimal Nathwani after his victory. PTI

IN A blow to the Congress, the party lost the election for one of the two Rajya Sabha seats up for grabs in Jharkhand because of cross-voting by its INDIA bloc allies. While the Congress alleged that RJD and CPI (M-L) Liberation MLAs voted for the NDA-backed candidate, the Left party denied the accusation and asked it to "look within".

Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM) candidate and former minister Baidyanath Ram won while the second seat went to NDA-backed Independent Parimal Nathwani, who is the Director of Corporate Affairs for Reliance Industries. He defeated the Congress's Pranav Jha, who is the All India Congress Committee (AICC) secretary attached to party president Mallikarjun Kharge's office.

In the 81-member Jharkhand Assembly, a candidate required 28 first-preference votes to win. The JMM-led alliance has a total of 56 MLAs and without cross-voting, both of its candidates would have sailed through. Sources said Ram received 30 votes while Nathwani also got 30, but two votes were declared invalid. Jha could manage only 21 votes, with one vote deemed invalid.

The four RJD MLAs and two legislators of the CPI (M-L) Liberation did not vote for Jha, the Congress alleged. The AICC's Jharkhand in-charge, K Raju, claimed that 16 MLAs of the party and the four additional JMM votes went to Jha. He alleged that the RJD and CPI (M-L) Liberation had "betrayed the alliance", accusing the BJP of engineering the outcome through "horse-trading".

Denying the allegation, CPI (M-L) Liberation general secretary Dipankar Bhattacharya posted on X, "As for speculations over Jharkhand Rajya Sabha voting, we can tell with full responsibility that our two MLAs voted for the Congress candidate as planned. Two of our senior leaders PBM Haldar Mahato and CCM Geeta Mandal duly verified the votes cast by @cpimliberation MLAs."

Dismissing the allegations, CPI (M-L) MLA Arup Chatterjee said, "It is very easy to point fingers at small parties. If the Congress claims it had 20 votes, how can it be assumed that only the RJD or the CPI (M-L) votes were responsible? Why can't the discrepancy be from elsewhere? No one should comment without knowing all the facts."

Chatterjee said even if his party's two votes had gone elsewhere, the result would not necessarily have changed. "If two votes were not cast as claimed, that alone would not have ensured victory," he said. The Left party posted on X, "Jharkhand Rajya Sabha voting outcome makes it clear that Congress failed to secure the support of all its own MLAs. Before pointing fingers at others, larger parties should first look within. Those making such statements to protect their party or leadership are damaging the credibility of CPI (M-L) and all those legislators who voted in good faith for the Congress candidate. This is not merely an attempt to malign CPI (M-L), but an effort that harms the image of the entire INDIA alliance."

Nathwani reacts

Following his election to the Rajya Sabha for the fourth time, Nathwani posted on X, "This moment is filled with profound emotion as this will be my third term from Jharkhand, the very soil from where my Parliamentary journey began in 2008. It is a matter of immense pride and humility to return once again to my karmabhoomi."

WITH INPUTS FROM SINGH IN PATNA

Chhattisgarh BJP leader, 2 kin die in burning car; mining rivalry suspected

Jayprakash S Naidu
Raipur, June 18

BJP leader Bharat Singh

A BJP leader died after being trapped in a burning car that police suspect was deliberately set ablaze over a long-standing sand mining rivalry in Chhattisgarh's Korea district Tuesday evening. Two of his relatives also died in the alleged attack.

"Prima facie, forensic experts said the accused poured fuel to burn the victims alive but have not yet submitted their report," a senior police officer said. Four men from the same family have been arrested -- Vishal, Satyakumar, Akshay and Mahendar.

The incident took place in Katgodi village under Sonhat tehsil Tuesday evening when the deceased, Bharat Singh, 53, was travelling with some of his relatives. The suspects allegedly arrived in a light tipper truck and rammed into their car. While police initially said the car had caught fire in the collision, they now suspect panchayat with BJP support in 1995 but, "due to health issues and his business commitments, he has not held any post", a BJP source said.

Police suspect the attack stemmed from an old business rivalry related to sand mining. A day before the killings, a verbal altercation had reportedly taken place between the two families.

On Tuesday, Bharat Singh and his associates allegedly went to meet members of the rival group after a phone conversation, following which the confrontation turned violent.

The Opposition Congress alleged that illegal sand mining was being carried out under political patronage in the state, leading to such crimes.

"...Illegal sand mining is being carried out under the protection of BJP leaders. The deceased was a BJP leader, and those accused of the attack are also linked to the BJP," said Chhattisgarh Congress president Deepak Baij.
