

Uttarakhand Cabinet approves UCC draft

THE UTTARAKHAND CABINET has approved the final draft of the Uniform Civil Code, paving the way for its tabling in the state Assembly during a special four-day session that begins on Monday.

The state cabinet passed the UCC draft at a meeting chaired by Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami at his official residence on Sunday. The special session of the Assembly has been convened especially to pass the legislation on the UCC and make it an Act. The cabinet approval of the draft was needed for its introduction in the Assembly.

If UCC is implemented, BJP-ruled Uttarakhand will become the first state in the country after Independence to adopt it. A UCC has been operational in Goa since the days of the Portuguese rule.

A Uniform Civil Code for Uttarakhand was a major election promise by Dhami in the 2022 assembly polls. The final draft of the UCC running into 740 pages in four volumes was submitted to CM Dhami here recently by a five-member panel headed by retired judge of the Supreme Court Ranjana Prakash Desai. —PTI
