Kirti Oil and Central Warehousing Corporation Collaborate to Enhance procurement of Soybean from the farmers
In a significant development for the agricultural sector Kirti Oil and Central Warehousing Corporation have joined hands to foster the procurement of soybeans from local farmers. The collaborative agreement signed on 13 December 2023 aims to streamline the process of soybean procurement benefiting both farmers and the industry as a whole. Under this strategic partnership Kirti Oil renowned for its expertise in edible oil production and distribution will work closely with Central Warehousing Corporation to ensure a smooth and efficient procurement of Soybean from the farmers. By leveraging their respective strengths the two entities will contribute to improving the livelihoods of soybean farmers while meeting the increasing demand for high-quality soybeans in the market. One of the primary objectives of this agreement is to enhance the efficiency of the soybean procurement process. Through Central Warehousing Corporation's well-established warehousing infrastructure and logistics capabilities Kirti Oil will be able to procure soybeans directly from farmers at competitive prices. This streamlined approach is expected to eliminate intermediaries resulting in better remuneration for farmers and improved transparency in the supply chain.

WR's vigilance team detected unlawful transportation of valuable articles in Duranto Express
According to a press release issued by Shri Sumit Thakur - Chief Public Relations Officer of Western Railway, the diligent Vigilance team in association with CIB/RPF exposed a case where 6 bundles of parcel packages containing valuable silver ornaments were seized. These bundles were unloaded from Train No. 12268 Hapa - Mumbai Central Duranto at Mumbai Central station on 26.12.2023 and were being taken out from Railway premises without taking delivery. When Vigilance team were monitoring the unloading of parcel consignments in front parcel compartment, which was on lease nothing unusual was observed. However, on enquiring with the staff monitoring unloading in Rear Parcel Compartment, it was informed that some of the packages were left for transferring to inward godown for delivery. The team immediately rushed to inward godown to examine these parcels, however, nothing was found. Finding it suspicious, in no time, the team hurried to Truck Tempo loading premises and nabbed the loader along with the parcel consignments and brought it to the inward Parcel godown.

Western Railway to commemorate 125 Years Of headquarters building at churchgate With great Enthusiasm, pomp & fervour
The Western Railway Headquarters Building at Churchgate is completing 125 years of its construction in January, 2024. This magnificent structure was earlier the headquarters office of Bombay Baroda & Central India Railways (BB&CI), which was the forerunner of Western Railway. To mark this historic occasion of the 125 years celebration of WR's Headquarter building, Western Railway has planned a month-long celebration in January 2024 which will include various events such as exhibitions, heritage walks, release of Coffee Table Book, cultural programmes, etc. According to a press release issued by Shri Sumit Thakur- Chief Public Relations Officer of Western Railway, the work of construction of the Headquarters building at Churchgate was started in the year 1894 and was completed in January 1899. And since then, this magnificent building has borne witness to various developments, standing tall to the test of time. It served as the Headquarters of the erstwhile Bombay Baroda & Central India (BB&CI) Railway and thereafter as the HQ of Western Railway, since the formation of WR in 1951 after independence. Shri Thakur further informed that the Headquarters building has been restored with great emphasis to retain its old heritage charm & beauty. The precincts & surroundings have been beautifully enhanced, with landscaping & soothing illumination. The Heritage Gallery has been also renovated aesthetically which will add nostalgia & transport the viewers to the yesteryears. Various events have been planned to make this occasion a grand success. An Exhibition will be held at the HQ Lawns from 7th to 9th January, 2024 highlighting the rich past of this grand building & history of WR. This exhibition will be open for general public
