Mandatory for contracted players to play domestic cricket: Coming down hard at players skipping domestic cricket, Shah said that it is mandatory for centrally contracted players, and those in the wider India pool as short-listed by the national selectors, to play domestic cricket tournaments as directed.

Responding to a query on Jharkhand wicketkeeper-batter Isha Kishan's long absence from action, Shah said while he would not draw attention to Kishan specifically, he would be sending out a directive soon that all fit centrally contracted players need to make themselves available for selection in domestic cricket.

"I am going to write a letter tomorrow that if the chairman of selectors, coach or captain tell you that you have to play red-ball cricket, then you have to play. We will follow the NCA (National Cricket Academy) medical staff advice on player fitness. If you are fit then no excuse (for not playing) will be entertained," Shah said. "This applies to all centrally contracted players, they have to play. The player cannot decide his future, the selectors need to decide that. If the player is good at red-ball, he has to play," he added.

Swiatek eases into third straight Doha quarterfinal

AGENCIES
DOHA, 15 FEBRUARY

World No.1 Iga Swiatek extended her impressive Qatar Open winning streak by defeating No.14 seed Ekaterina Alexandrova 6-1, 6-4 in the Round of 16. Two-time defending champion Swiatek has now won 10 straight matches at the tournament after besting Alexandrova in their Wednesday evening showdown with the 1-hour and 31-minute victory. The Pole will now play another two-time Doha champion, Victoria Azarenka, in the quarterfinals. Former World No.1 Azarenka beat No.8 seed Jelena Ostapenko 6-0, 6-3 in the night match, for her third win over Ostapenko already this year. By knocking out World No.19 Alexandrova, Swiatek has won her last 11 matches against Top 20 opposition, and is 4-0 against that group so far this year. Swiatek's last loss to a fellow member of the Top 20 was to Veronika Kudermetova in the Tokyo quarterfinals last September, according to WTA.

Earlier on Wednesday, former World No.1 Naomi Osaka moved into the quarterfinals after her Round of 16 opponent, World No.37 Lesia Tsurenko, withdrew from their match with an elbow injury. Osaka, who was on maternity leave for the end of 2022 and all of 2023, is into her first WTA Tour quarterfinal since she reached the Miami Open final in March of 2022. In the quarterfinals, two-time WTA 1000 titlist Osaka will face another former World No.1, Karolina Pliskova, who defeated her fellow Czech Linda Noskova in three sets 3-6, 7-5, 6-1.
