over Rahul Gandhi's
'democracy under attack'
remarks made in the UK, senior BJP leader Mukhtar Abbas Naqvi Thursday said a'deliberate disinformation drive' against Parlament constitutional institutions and democratic values is being carried out "not by chance but by choice".

Taking a dig at the Gandhi family, Naqvi said a sinister conspiracy" by the democratically defeated dynasty" in the country and "anti-India coterie" in some foreign countries, "is not a coincidence, but an experiment" "In 2015, when heads of government and ministers of 54 African countries visited India to discuss the global economic, social, and cultural issues, these pessimist political players started an "award wansi" planned attack on Indian democracy. Its parliamentary system and transparent constitutional institutions, the former Union minister told reporters here. Some "frustrated and fraudulent people and institutions" are unable to digost India's rising global stature under the dynamic and effective leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, he said. "The proprietors of privileged politics" are distressed due to Modl's 'politics of performance', he said. Rahul's remarks during his recent trip to the United Kingdom have rocked Parliament, with both Houses failing to transact any significant business on the first four days of the Budget session's second half. During his interactions in the UK, the Congress leader alleged that the structures of Indian democracy are under attack that the structures of Indian democracy are under attack and there is a "full-scale assault" on the country's institutions. The former Congress president also told British parliamentarians in London that microphones are often 'turned off' in the Lok Sabha when an opposition member raises important issues. Rahul's remarks triggered a remarks triggered a political slugfest, with the BJP accusing him of maligning India on foreign soil and seeking foreign soft and seeking foreign intervention, and the Congress hitting back at the ruling party by citing instances of Prime Minister Narendra Modi raising internal politics abroad. their MLAs in the House complex, following which Speaker A N Shamseer hurriedly adjourned the session for the day.

As soon as Question Hour began, the Opposition members started raising slogans demanding justice from the Speaker and sought action in the scume that broke out outside his office on Wednesday. Leader of Opposition in the Assembly V D Satheesan made it clear that the Opposition would cooperate with House proceedings only if action is taken against those who allegedly assaulted their members including women MLAs. He also wanted the Speaker to protect the opposition's right to raise pressing issues of people under Rule 50 during the Zero Hour, which has the Zero Hour, which has been continuously denied in recent days. Though the Speaker ensured a detailed ruling in this regard later, the opposition front was not ready to cooperate with the proceedings and trouped to the well of the House with placards and slogameering.
