Nawaz Sharif confident that election will take place in February: Former minister

ISLAMABAD: Pakistan Muslim League (N) Supremo Nawaz Sharif is confident that the general election would be held in the month of February next year, according to party leader Rana Sanaullah, Dawn reported. "He (Nawaz Sharif) is sure that elections will take place in February. Delimitation of constituencies has to be completed before then, and it will be completed by December," Sanaullah said while responding to a question about Nawaz's expected return to Pakistan during an appearance on Pakistan's private news channel on Tuesday. The party leader further stated that it will be appropriate for Nawaz Sharif to return to the country in September or October. Nawaz left the country in November 2019 for medical treatment in London following his conviction in a corruption case. The three-time prime minister has not returned since and faces multiple cases in Pakistan, as per Dawn's report. Last week, his younger brother and then-prime minister Shhebaz Sharif also said that he would return to Pakistan in September, lead the PML-N's election campaign and assume the role of the prime minister for a fourth time if the party would emerge victorious in the polls. But recently, the Supreme Court has ruled that the Review of Judgments and Orders Act, 2023 was "unconstitutional", crashing all the hopes of Nawaz Sharif, who was seeking to challenge his lifetime disqualifications, Geo News reported. This decision has created a cloud of uncertainty for Nawaz Sharif to come back to his land. Recently, a Dawn report also cited a senior Election Commission of Pakistan (ECP) official as saying.

CHANGES TO ELIGIBILITY FOR GOVT'S WARMER KIWI HOMES PROGRAMME

WELLINGTON : Homeowners are being encouraged to check their eligibility for the Government's Warmer Kiwi Homes programme after changes to its eligibility criteria, announced by the Minister of Energy and Resources Dr Megan Woods today. "Extending the eligibility criteria will help more homeowners and their families to enjoy comfortable homes, without feeling they need to economise on heating," said Megan Woods. "The changes mean up to 58,000 more lower-income homeowners will now meet the criteria so I encourage homeowners who think they, or those close to them, might benefit from this programme to check the Warmer Kiwi Homes website. People who have applied previously, may now be eligible," Megan Wood said.Run by EECA (the Energy Efficiency and Conservation Authority), it has delivered warmer, drier, healthier, and more energy-efficient homes for tens of thousands of New Zealanders since it began in 2018.
