Note:

As per company's Terms & Conditions mentioned in the appointment letter of every employee, every employee is eligible to receive Medical Benefits, Leave Travel Allowance and Leave Encashment. However, there are other components as well in the CTC of the employees. Below is the detailed list of Components and Basis of Admissible Amount considered in above mentioned Claims

Bonus:

The corporate Debtor has not announced Bonus since past few years, so the liability to pay Bonus to the employees does not arise. However the proof of claims do not substantiate the same. Hence, the same is not included in Amonut Admissible.

Provident Fund:

The company has defined contribution plans. Contributions are made to provident fund in India for employees at the rate of 12% of basic salary as per regulations and to Employee's state insurance fund. The contributions are made to registered provident fund and employee's state insurance fund administered by the government. The obligation of the company is limited to the amount contributed and it has no further contractual nor any constructive obligation. Since these contributions are Corporate Debtors Statutory Liabilities, they cannot be considered as Employee Benefits.

Mediclaime & Accidental Premium:

As per company policy, employees were facilitated with mediclaime and Accidental Insurance Premium for a few years period in the past. However, the employees not in existing payrolls are not eligible for these benefits.

Leave Encashment:

The leave obligations cover the company's liability for sick and earned leave. The company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for any of these obligations. Hence, Leave Encashment is not included in Admissible Amount.

Leave Travel Allowance:

The above benefit can be availed only after submission of proofs of travel. None of the Employees have facilitated any documents or supportings to substantiate the claim amount in this regards.

Gratuity & Pension:

The company provides for gratuity for employees in india as per the Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972. Employees who are in continuous service for a period of five years are eligible for gratuity. The amount of gratuity payable on retirement/ termination is the employees last drawn basic salary per month computed proportionately for 15 days salary multiplied by number of years of service. Employees who are eligible and claimed for gratuity are calculated by applying the gratuity regulations.

Salary:

The Unpaid Salaries of the past employees have been considered in the Admissible Amount as per Regulation 14 of Insolvency & Bankruptcy Board of India (CIRP) Regulations 2016.

House Rent Allowance:

The above mentioned benefit can be availed after duly providing with the rental receipts and other documentary evidence for claiming the benefits. However, as per Regulation 14 of Insolvency & Bankruptcy Board of India (CIRP) Regulations 2016 we have considered the amount admissible.

Mobile Expense:

The above mentioned benefit can be availed after duly providing with the documentary evidence for claiming the benefits. None of the Employees have Submitted the Proofs to substantiate the said benefit.

Other Claims:

Where the employees have not provided the bifurcation of the claim amount, the same is mentioned in other claims. Due to insufficient supportings and evidence , the same is not considered in Admissible amount.
