II. It is seen that the present application before this Tribunal has been subject to extensive litigation, filing of several Interlocutory Applications and appeals having been considered by this Tribunal, the local District Court and the Hon'ble NCLAT.

III. The present matter originates from an application filed under Section 7 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (IBC) by the Financial Creditor against the Corporate Debtor in 2018, with the CIRP commencing only in 2020. Subsequently, multiple extensions and exclusions were granted by this Tribunal, taking into account the substantial prospects of resolving the insolvency through a Resolution Plan. The Resolution Plan was even remanded back for further consideration of the CoC keeping in mind the principles of equity and natural justice and more importantly the mandate of the Code that resolution is always preferable as compared to liquidation.

- IV. One of the orders from the history of the orders in this extensive litigation is the order dated 08.11.2023 which is reproduced below: -

"This application is remanded back to the RP and dismissed with the liberty to re-file the same again in view of the position of the claims and the distribution amount is crystallized by the Successful Resolution Applicant in the next CoC meeting taking into consideration Rainbow Paper judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court. Application for approval, if any, to be filed not later than 30.11.2023.

Accordingly, IA/638(AHM) 2021 is dismissed."

- V. It is noted that this Tribunal specifically directed the RP to complete the process latest by 30.11.2023. Hence, it is the view of this Tribunal that the CIRP period of the Corporate Debtor came to an end on 30.11.2023.

- VI. However, it is seen that the present application for approval of plan has been filed on 05.07.2024, i.e. more than 8 months post the date which was directed to the applicant in the previous order of this tribunal.

- VII. Moreover, the non-adherence of the parties in this matter be it the applicant RP or the CoC, is to such extent that notably, the first meeting post the Tribunal's order dated 08.11.2023 was convened only on 04.12.2023, which itself is beyond the stipulated date as per the order dated 08.11.2023 for the filing of the application.

VIII. The Applicant has further convened several meetings of the CoC without proper authorisation and outside the mandate of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code. Moreover, it is noteworthy that the Applicant has neither sought condonation of the delay in filing the present application nor provided any reasonable explanation for the cause of such delay.

IX. Based on the foregoing observations, it is evident that the RPand the CoC have demonstrated a grossly negligent and lackadaisical approach in the conduct of this matter, thereby failing to uphold the provisions and objectives of the Code. Such conduct not only reflects a disregard for the timelines and procedural mandate stipulated by this Tribunal but also undermines the very essence of the Insolvency Resolution Process.

X. The indifference exhibited by the RP and CoC towards their statutory duties is not only condemnable but also warrants serious censure. This Tribunal views their actions as bordering on dereliction of duty, and their failure to act with diligence and expediency as required under the law. The evident lethargy and non-compliance with the legal framework have delayed the resolution process, which is against the spirit of the IBC. Such behavior is not only subject to criticism but may also attract penal consequences under the law, as it has significantly hindered the timely and efficient resolution of the corporate debtor's insolvency.

XI. This Tribunal is fully conscious of the need to keep judicial intervention or innovation from NCLT at its bare minimum and should not disturb the foundational principles of the IBC, as the law laid down in catena of rulings of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, however at the same time we cannot overlook or brush aside this glaring breach of compliance of a statutory mandatory provision by the parties when noticed.

XII. Reliance in this regard can be placed on the ruling of Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, in State Bank of India v. M/s. Manibhadra Polycot, Order dated 9th August 2019 in Civil Appeal Nos. 4656-4657 of 2019, wherein Hon'ble apex court set aside the order of Hon'ble NCLAT which allowed the exclusion of 21 days from being counted as a part of 270 days period.

XIII. On the aspect of adherence of timelines given in the provisions of the Code, the Bench observed that:

"1. The National Company Law Appellate Tribunal in the impugned order dated 01.05.2019 has excluded a further 21 days from being counted as part of the 270 days period which is otherwise over in the facts of this case. These 21 days are divided into 3 groups. A cluster of 7 days from 17.11.2017 to 23.11.2017; another cluster of 11 days between 06.03.2018 and 17.03.2018; and a third cluster of 3 days between 08.08.2018 and 10.08.2018.

2. We are of the view that the first two sets of days, namely, 7 days and 11 days, cannot be excluded for the simple reason that they are not incurred in Reason: any litigation process. Even assuming that the last cluster, namely 3 days between 08.08.2018 and 10.08.2018 are to be excluded, and we add these days to 01.05.2019 when the litigation process has come to an end, we still reach 04.05.2019. The Resolution plan in question is submitted only on 08.05.2019, and is therefore clearly beyond the mandatory period laid down in the Insolvency Code, 2016.

3. The impugned order dated 01.05.2019 is set aside and the appeals are accordingly allowed. C.A. Nos. 4392-4393/2019

4. The appeals are disposed of in terms of the order passed above."
