2. AVERMENTS OF THE APPLICANT

- 2.1 As per Part-IV of the Application the total amount claimed to be in default is Rs. 2,03,77,512/- (Two Crore Three Lakh Seventy-Seven Thousand Five Hundred and Twelve Rupees).
- 2.2 The date of default is mentioned as 21.06.2021.
- 2.3 It is submitted that, the Operational Creditor and the Corporate Debtor have been in a business relationship since FY 2017-2018. The CD placed orders telephonically, without formal purchase orders, against which the OC duly supplied goods and materials, including Wheat (agri-commodity products) and raised invoices for the said financial years.
- 2.4 It is stated that the Corporate Debtor was converted into a Private Limited Company on 23.07.2020, and the outstanding balances were accordingly transferred in the name of the CD by the OC on the said date. The total outstanding amount as on the date of such conversion stands at Rs. 2,32,35,918/- (Rupees Two Crores Thirty-Two Lakhs Thirty-Five Thousand Nine Hundred and Eighteen only).
- 2.5 Further, the Operational Creditor raised invoices in the name of the Corporate Debtor amounting to Rs. 16,59,524/- (Rupees Sixteen Lakhs Fifty-Nine Thousand Five Hundred and Twenty-Four only) during May 2021, post-conversion of the CD into a Private Limited Company. The Corporate Debtor was liable to pay an amount of Rs. 2,48,95,442/- as value of grains supplied. Out of this amount, payments aggregating Rs. 45,17,930/- have been received. The balance amount of Rs. 2,03,77,512/- remains outstanding. Copies of the invoices raised by the Operational Creditor for the supply of goods are annexed at Annexure A-4. The Last Invoice date was 06.05.2021 and as per the payment terms last date of payment after 45 days was 20.06.2021. And hence the date of default is considered as 21.06.2021 i.e., 45+1 days.

2.6 The Operational Creditor considered the payments received with the 'First-In-First-Out' (FIFO) principle, pursuant to Section 61 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, which states as follows:

"Where neither party makes any appropriation, the payment shall be applied in discharge of the debts in order of time, whether they are or are not barred by the law in force for the time being as to the limitation of suits. "

2.7 Accordingly, the earliest outstanding invoices were settled first, before the subsequent invoices by the Operational Creditor.

2.8 It is submitted that, the Corporate Debtor maintained its books of accounts in the form of a ledger for the period 2020–2025. A copy of the said ledger, as maintained by the Operational Creditor, is annexed at Annexure A-5.

Copy of legal notice send by Operational Creditor to Corporate Debtor and reply by the Corporate Debtor are annexed at Annexure A-6 and Annexure A-7 respectively.

2.10 It is submitted that, due to failure on part of the Corporate Debtor to make payments towards the total outstanding debt after 1310 days from the date of default, and considering the cordial business relations, a Demand Notice in Form 3 under IBC, 2016 dated 21.01.2025 was sent by the Operational Creditor to the Corporate Debtor at its Registered office address by way of Speed Post (EM261403091IN) dated

This Tribunal further directed to Applicant to file affidavit of service well before the next date of hearing and Corporate Debtor was directed to file its reply within a period of 7 days after receipt of the copy of the application.

- 2.17 In compliance of order dated 18.07.2025, Operational Creditor filed an affidavit of service dated 09.09.2025, which revealed that the service through speed post was not made upon the Corporate Debtor and the copy of the notice as well as application was returned as unclaimed. And also, that copy of the application has been served upon Corporate Debtor on 18.05.2025 by way of an e-mail.

4. ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS

- 4.1 We have heard the Ld. Counsel for the Applicant and have perused the records as placed before us. Our findings in the matter are as under: -
- 4.2 The present application was affirmed on 09.05.2025.
- 4.3 The Applicant has claimed an amount of Rs. 2,03,77,512/- as operational debt due from the Corporate Debtor, in respect of the supply of goods and materials, including Wheat (agri-commodity products). The total value of supplies made by the Operational Creditor amounts to Rs. 2,48,95,442/-, out of which the Corporate Debtor has made part payments aggregating Rs. 45,17,930/-

4.4 We observe that, a demand notice dated 21.01.2025 was served upon the Corporate Debtor, which was not replied. Operational Creditor has attached the demand notice at page number 93 to 99 of the application.

4.5 As per the application the date of default is mentioned as 21.06.2021.

PARTICULARS	DATE	LIMITATION (as per section 18 of the Limitation act 1963)
Date of Default	21.06.2021	20.06.2024
Legal Notice	21.04.2024	-----
Reply to Legal Notice by the Corporate - Debtor	03.06.2024 (acknowledge the debt)	02.06.2027
Filing of Application	18.05.2025	-----

4.6 The last invoice date was 06.05.2021, and as per the payment terms, the last date for payment after 45 days was 20.06.2021. In accordance with Section 3(12) of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, the date of default was deemed to be 21.06.2021, being the day immediately following the due date. The Operational Creditor issued a legal notice on 21.04.2024, within the original limitation period of three years from the date of default. Thereafter, the Corporate Debtor, through its Counsel, Mr. Avinash B. Malpe, acknowledged the debt and replied to the said notice on 03.06.2024. Such acknowledgment extended the limitation period for a further period of three years from the date of acknowledgment i.e., until 02.06.2027. Accordingly, the Operational Creditor was filed present application under Section 9 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code on 18.05.2025, which was within the extended period of limitation and therefore maintainable under Section 9 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code.

4.7 Section 18(1) of the Limitation Act 1963, is reproduced herein below:

“18. Effect of acknowledgment in writing.—(1) Where, before the expiration of the prescribed period for a suit or application in respect of any property or right, an acknowledgment of liability in respect of such property or right has been made in writing signed by the party against whom such property or right is claimed, or by any person through whom he derives his title or liability, a fresh period of limitation shall be computed from the time when the acknowledgment was so signed.”

4.8 This tribunal has also relied on Hon’ble Supreme Court’s judgement in the matter of Dena Bank v. C. Shivkumar Reddy, (2021) 10 SCC 330, where it was held that

“113. As per Section 18 of Limitation Act, an acknowledgement of present subsisting liability, made in writing in respect of any right claimed by the opposite party and signed by the party against whom the right is claimed, has the effect of commencing a fresh period of limitation from the date on which the acknowledgement is signed. Such acknowledgement need not be accompanied by a promise to pay expressly or even by implication. However, the acknowledgement must be made before the relevant period of limitation has expired. “

4.9 Applicant has attached the NESL record of default being Form D at page number 108 of the application which is in “Deemed to be Authenticated” status giving date of default as 21.06.2021.

- 4.10 As it is seen from para 3.1 of this order, the Director of the CD was present on 10.09.2025. Thereafter, none was present on behalf of the CD and hence, the CD was set ex-parte vide order dated 27.10.2025.
- 4.11 The Applicant has attached the 9(3)(b) Affidavit stating that there is no dispute raised by the CD with regard to the unpaid operational debt.
- 4.12 In view of the above findings, it is clear that the Applicant has placed on record the necessary evidences and materials to demonstrate the existence of the operational debt exceeding the minimum threshold of Rs.1 Crore prescribed under Section 4 of the Code due and payable by the CD as well as the default in payment thereof by the CD. The Applicant has served the Demand Notice upon the CD, and that the CD has failed to establish the existence of any pre-existing dispute. The Application is complete as all the relevant documents have been attached by the Applicant along with the Application.
- 4.13 We find that all pre-requisites of Section 9 of the Code are fulfilled and, accordingly, we are satisfied that the instant Application is fit for admission under Section 9 of the Code. The Applicant has attached all the documents as required and therefore the Application is complete and demands admission.
- 4.14 Ld. Counsel of operational creditor requests this Tribunal to appoint an IRP from the panel maintained by the IBBI/NCLT. Which is recorded in order dated 26.02.2026. Hence, this Tribunal has appointed Mr. Ashok Mittal as an IRP to carry out the functions as mentioned under the Code.
- 4.15 We make it clear that at this stage we have not crystalized the amount as claimed in this Application, the same is left to be collated by the IRP.
