ORDER

Per: Rohit Kapoor, Member (Judicial):

1. The Court convened via video conference.
2. The present Petition CP (IB) No. 5/KB/2023 under consideration is a Petition filed under section 95(1) of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 ('Code') read with rule 7(2) of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy (Application to Adjudicating Authority for Insolvency Resolution process for Personal Guarantors to Corporate Debtor) Rules, 2019 (Personal Guarantors Rules) and regulation 4(2) of IBBI (Insolvency Resolution Process for Personal Guarantors to Corporate Debtors) Regulations, 2019 (Personal Guarantors Regulations) filed by Indian Bank (Petitioner) a Body Corporate constituted under the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970, for initiating the Insolvency Resolution Process (IR Process) against Personal Guarantor Ms. Reena Bansal, One of the directors of M/s Ambootia Tea Exports Pvt. Ltd. (CIN: UO1400WB 2009PTC134782) (hereinafter referred to as “Corporate Debtor”) for debt amounting to Rs. 21,45,46,851.16/- (Rupees Twenty One Crores Forty Five Lakhs Forty Six Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty One and Sixteen Paise only).

3. The factual matrix of the case is that the Applicant is a banking company constituted under the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertaking) Act, 1970 Act and “the Corporate Debtor” and Personal Guarantor had approached the applicant seeking grant of various financial facility. On the representations made by the Corporate Debtor, the Applicant extended various Credit facilities on 05.04.2017, and granted Cash Credit Facility. As per the Credit Facility, Corporate Debtor was obliged to repay the Principal sum of loan along with interest on in accordance with repayment schedule as set out in the agreement. The Deed of Guarantee was executed on 31.12.2019 by the Personal Guarantor. The Corporate Debtor and the “Personal Guarantor” had failed and/or neglected to make payment as per terms of the said Facility Agreement. and consequently, the applicant had classified the account of the “Principal Debtor” (Corporate Debtor) as a non-performing asset (NPA) on 21.11.2020.
4. The personal guarantor Ms Reena Bansal has executed personal guarantee on various dates in favour of the Applicant to secure the repayment of the principal amount of the Cash Credit Facilities together with all interest, additional interest, liquidated damages, premium on repayments, reimbursement of all costs, charges and expenses and all other obligations payable as per the Facility Agreement. The Applicant has issued a Demand Notice in Form B on 20.10.2022 under Rule 7(1) of the IB Rules, 2019 but no response was received.

5. In this factual conspectus, the applicant prays for initiation of insolvency resolution process, against the respondent/guarantor. Form B is at page 339-341, Form C is at page 6-29 of the application. Rule 7(3) of the IB (Application to Adjudicating Authority for Insolvency resolution Process for Personal Guarantors to Corporate Debtors) Rules 2019, requires a copy of the Petition/Application to be served on to the Personal guarantor and the Corporate Debtor. An affidavit of service in this regard has been filed by the Financial Creditor.

The application is complete as required under Section 95 read with rule 7 of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy (Application to Adjudicating Authority for Insolvency Resolution process for Personal Guarantors to Corporate Debtor) Rules, 2019.

6. It is to be noted that Hon'ble Supreme Court in the judgement of Dilip B. Jiwrajka V/s Union of India & Ors. in WP(civil)No. 1281 of 2021 dated 09.11.2023 has upheld the Constitutional Validity of the Sections 94 to 100 and the Conclusion of the Judgments inter-alia are as follows:

i. No judicial adjudication is involved at the stages envisaged in Sections 95 to Section 99 of the IBC;

ii. The resolution professional appointed under Section 97 serves a facilitative role of collating all the facts relevant to the examination of the application for the commencement of the insolvency resolution process which has been preferred under Section 94 or Section 95. The report to be submitted to the adjudicatory authority is recommendatory in nature on whether to accept or reject the application;

iii. The submission that a hearing should be conducted by the adjudicatory authority for the purpose of determining 'jurisdictional facts' at the stage when it appoints a resolution professional under Section 97(5) of the IBC is rejected. No such adjudicatory function is contemplated at that stage. To read in such a requirement at that stage would be to rewrite the statute which is impermissible in the exercise of judicial review;

iv. The resolution professional may exercise the powers vested under Section 99(4) of the IBC for the purpose of examining the application for insolvency resolution and CP/IB/337/AHM/2020 12 of 17 to seek information on matters relevant to the application in order to facilitate the submission of the report recommending the acceptance or rejection of the application;

v. There is no violation of natural justice under Section 95 to Section 100 of the IBC as the debtor is not deprived of an opportunity to participate in the process of the examination of the application by the resolution professional;

vi. No judicial determination takes place until the adjudicating authority decides under Section 100 whether to accept or reject the application. The report of the resolution professional is only recommendatory in nature and hence does not bind the adjudicatory authority when it exercises its jurisdiction under Section 100;

vii. The adjudicatory authority must observe the principles of natural justice when it exercises jurisdiction under Section 100 to determine whether to accept or reject the application; CP/IB/337/AHM/2020 13 of 17

viii. The purpose of the interim moratorium under Section 96 is to protect the debtor from further legal proceedings; and ix. The provisions of Section 95 to Section 100 of the IBC are not unconstitutional as they do not violate Article 14 and Article 21 of the Constitution.

7. The Applicant has proposed name of Insolvency Professional for appointment as Resolution Professional. In view of the above, Mr. Santanu Brahma, IBBI Registration No. IBBI/IPA-001/IP-Po1482/2018-2019/12251, email id : ip.santanubrahma@gmail.com Mobile No. 9830072700 is hereby appointed as Resolution Professional, Subject to his possessing a valid AFA, in exercise of the power conferred under section 97 of the IBC, 2016 on this Authority.
